Oral Proficiency Interview

In order to earn an endorsement in a foreign language, candidates must pass an Oral Proficiency Interview in that language. Proficiency must be demonstrated through an official OPI from the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) administered by Language Testing International <http://www.languagetesting.com/>.

The OPI is an internationally recognized test, and ratings will be valid for licensure in most states, as well as in many other professional applications. Candidates must obtain a rating of advanced-mid or higher.

Praxis II Content Knowledge Test

In order to earn an endorsement in a foreign language, candidates must take and pass the appropriate content knowledge test. Praxis II tests are available through ETS for Chinese, French, German, and Spanish; a test in Arabic is coming soon. Please contact the Utah State Office of Education for testing requirements in other languages.

Registration	Register online at www.ets.org/praxis . Register at least one month in advance.
Test Dates	Check the website for available dates. Dates vary depending on whether the test is offered computer-based or paper-based. Some tests are not offered very frequently, so please check dates early to find a convenient test date.
Receiving Scores	Scores are posted to the candidate's online account with ETS. You must log into the ETS website to view and print your scores.
